Wish you were here? Supervising Holiday Playschemes.

In a survey of holiday play settings by Skills Active, 46% of employers reported difficulty meeting quality standards as a result of skills gaps and 67% reported the provision of further training as key to resolving the difficulty.

In response we have developed the hugely successful 'Supervising Holiday Playschemes' course, incorporating the Playwork Induction Standard Level 3, and accepted by Ofsted. For more information please...click here.
